

STOICS IT SOLUTIONS - Software Integration Engineer

This position is responsible for analysis, design, development and installation, implementation of applications & interfaces

Responsibilities

- System and data analysis, architecture, and design
- Data integration and workflow design
- Software development, configuration and customization
- Interface development to third-party APIs and drivers
- Modifies or upgrades applications to maintain software functionality
- Providing support by troubleshooting installed solutions (collection of symptoms, advanced analysis of logs)
- Maintain development deadlines and provide accurate estimates
- On-Site and Post implementation support
- Development of features and functions to support environment specific requirements
- Participate and support project assessment and production implementation events
- Collaborate with on and offshore integration teams.
- Work with new technology and tools in a highly-collaborative, Agile environment.
- Use industry standards and adopt new technologies to manage transformations and analysis.
- Installs and configure product software based on instructions on web/app servers and database servers
- Analyze and troubleshoot product stability issues reported by clients
- Utilize programming skills to ensure delivered code meets high standards of quality and reusability
- Follow functional/technical specifications and work with Application Consultants to ensure delivered code meets specifications
- Actively participate in code review and knowledge sharing sessions
- Learn, use and advocate latest technology trends in software development
- Able to write code that is easy to evolve and read; able to spot bad code.
- Studies integration points and producing detailed integration specifications (REST API, SOAP API, XML/JSON)
- Writes and compiles routine code and constructs routine database objects based on documented design.

Basic Qualifications / Skills

- College or University Degree related to Computer Science / Information Systems
- Skilled at navigating/using Microsoft Windows and Office
- An understanding (academic) of Computer Architecture & Networking.
- A good understanding of integration concepts and practices will be considered a plus
- Write test cases for new features and functionality
- Ability to work as a team
- Good written and verbal communication skill
- Willing to travel abroad for projects as per the company's policy
- Very good analytical skills
- Keep up to date knowledge of market trends and developments with regards to his/her area of responsibility.
- Very good communication and presentation skills
- Must demonstrate proficiency in English

Desirable Skills

- The following Skills will be considered an advantage
- Experience designing and implementing scalable ETLs.
- Experience designing and consuming RESTful APIs.
- SQL (Stored Procedures)
- SSIS / ETL
- Visual Studio / TFS
- Eclipse / Java
- HTML
- CSS
- Javascript (jQuery)

Current Company Benefits

- Flexible hours, work based on deliverables
- Fixed Salary plus Bonus based compensation
- Annual leaves